University of Colorado Denver Telemental Health Guide
http://www.tmhguide.org/
Brief description: This guide was developed by the University of Colorado Denver with funding support from the Center for Mental Health Services. As described on the website, "The Telemental Health Guide provides information that is essential for addressing the critical perceptual, technical, administrative, clinical, and policy issues that have impeded a greater expansion in telemental health services." The guide also has some helpful interactive online tools addressing issues such as room set up.
